“Do you have the time to listen to me whine?!”

Everyone belts out the intro of Basket Case; one of the San Francisco Bay Area punkrock trio's many hits. And what about American Idiot, Wake Me Up When September Ends and Boulevard Of Broken Dreams? These songs have established themselves as classics in your Spotify Wrapped list…

Green Bay honors the band for their decades long contribution to music. They have a lot of experience and know how to put on a show! Blood, sweat and tears are shed to make your life a little bit better. They even use the exact same amps and guitars to get the same sound as the original.

Long story short: Green Bay has everything to give you the ultimate Green Day experience. Full on energy and screaming guitars straight to your face! Be prepared for circlepits and airborne beers as soon as the first notes pump out of the speakers!

“I hope you had the time of your life”
